Robert Kish Joins Columbus Office of Reminger Co., LPA

COLUMBUS, OH – We are pleased to announce that Robert Kish has joined Reminger Co., LPA's Columbus, Ohio office. Robert focuses his practice in the areas of medical and dental negligence through the representation of physicians, hospitals, dentists and medical personnel in a variety of settings. Robert also defends clients in cases involving premises liability, general liability and other areas of professional negligence.

Robert returned to Reminger after serving as a senior litigation attorney for a large property and casualty insurance company. He also previously served as a Special Agent of the Ohio Bureau of Workers Compensation, where he investigated allegations of fraud and abuse involving the state fund.

Robert is a member of various professional associations. He is a frequent lecturer to legal and non-legal professionals in the areas of medical negligence and tort reform.

Robert can be reached by emailing rkish@reminger.com or by calling 614.232.2413.
